

Attorney at law Boris Baklaja

BIT law office, Serbia

Attorney at law Boris Baklaja is a highly skilled commercial and arbitration lawyer with almost 20 years of professional experience in Serbia and throughout the CEE region. For the past decade he has provided legal services to local and international clients, also cooperating with different international law firms.

He has represented clients in more than 20 arbitration proceedings in areas of construction and engineering, IT, international trade and services in Serbia and CEE region (Austria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, and North Macedonia).

He acted before the local and international arbitration forums under VIAC rules, ICC rules, UNCITRAL rules, Belgrade Arbitration Centre (BAC rules), Rules of the Permanent Court of Arbitration of the Serbian Chamber of Commerce and rules of Arbitration Court of the Serbian Football Association.

For the past seven years Boris acted as a sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator in more than 5 international arbitrations under VIAC rules, Permanent Court of Arbitration of the Serbian Chamber of Commerce rules and BAC rules.

He is a founding member of the Serbian Arbitration Association and a member of the Austrian Arbitration Association (ArbAUT).

He is a listed arbitrator in Vienna International Arbitral Centre (VIAC) and on the list of recommended arbitrators in the Permanent Arbitration at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Serbia and Belgrade Arbitration Centre (BAC).

He is fluent in English and French.